What is a Cooperative Preschool:

Parent Co-Op Participation and Responsibilities

NPCCP is a cooperative effort that cannot thrive without the time and talents of its students' family members. Our school's low tuition is possible partially due to the volunteer contribution of parents in the classroom every day. Along with assisting in the classroom monthly, your participation on a committee is essential to the functioning of our school. Our bylaws require that one parent from each family serve on a committee. Please sign up to be a committee member or committee chair at orientation. Your commitment should not exceed 2 hours a month average and could vary slightly from month to month.
